

Chasqui Quartet 2022 Tour

May 31, 2022 7pm

First United Church
Bloomington, Indiana

Chasqui Quartet presents Trios

“Lift Thine Eyes” from Elijah (1846)

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

Trio de Corda num. 1 (1956)

Lluís Benejam (1914-1968)

Allegro

Andante

Blues

Allegro vivace

Sonata op. 18 for Two Violins (1973)

Miklós Rózsa (1907-1995)

Lento Assai

Three Selections

Florence Beatrice Price (1887-1953)

The Deserted Garden

Out of the South Blew a Wind

Text by Fannie Carter Woods

Adoration

with Vicki King, piano

Serenata II for 2 Violins and Viola, H. 216 (1932)

Bohuslav Martinů (1890-1959)

Allegro

Poco Andante

Allegro con brio

Donations welcome

a portion of proceeds to benefit the Bloomington Refugee Support Network

Checks can be made to Meghan Dewan, or Venmo @chasquiquartet

venmo

Special thanks

Jenny Bass and Michael Hamburger
Drs. Vicki and Tom King
Bloomington Refugee Support Network
Reverend Jessica Petersen-Mutai, Lisa Stanger, staff, and the congregation of First United Church Bloomington

Chasqui Quartet

Sarah Cranor and Alejandro Gómez Guillén, violins
Han Dewan, Viola
Amy Huzjak, Cello

Chasqui: Running messenger of the Inca Empire who would travel long distances through the Andes to share messages.

Chasqui Quartet: 4 musicians (and runners) who travel long distances to share the best of the string quartet repertoire with audience.

Since meeting in 2019, Chasqui Quartet has become known for their commitment to immersive concert experiences, audience development, and innovative programming. Recent concerts have included works by George Walker, Gabriela Lena Frank, Jessie Montgomery, and Jennifer Higdon, alongside works of Mozart, Beethoven, and Dvorak. In demand as clinicians and instructors, Chasqui has coached extensively and performed for over 2000 students.

More info at chasquiquartet.com